The reports to the effect that the Cuban insurrection is collapsing can be contradicted by the frequent arrivals of reinforcements from Spain.

Agate suitable for jewelry and ornamental objects has been discovered in the Lake Superior region and in many parts of the West.

Friktion by rotary fans was the cause of a big fire in a building on North Market street, Chicago, that caused damage amounting to $150,000 before it could be extinguished.

The sum of $150,000, or thereabouts, some 2,000,000 kroner of which was raised by public subscription, has been spent on the fortification of Copenhagen since 1886.

In 1893 France had 287,294 marriages; divorces, 6,184; births, 874,672; deaths, 867,523. For the first time since 1889 the number of births registered exceeded the number of deaths.

The new woman is not yet so completely mistress of the field that the arrival of a third daughter in a boyless family is not regarded by the public as a matter for condolence rather than congratulation.

As bicycles multiply on the streets of cities, accidents to wheelmen become more numerous. The spurt in the wheel craze has put a large number of greenhorns on the roads, and these wobblers in emergencies are liable to become the victims of accidents.

The Kaiser's observation that the seas now connect, instead of divide, is not far from right when the ocean greyhounds are considered. A railway journey of six days is not much faster and less comfortable.

While the railway passengers carried in Great Britain in 1891 numbered 35,000,000, in Germany more than 100,000,000 and in Belgium about 57,000,000, the number conveyed in Russia was only 42,500,000.

A large number of bicycles are in use by the signal corps, and several prominent army officers say they are preferable to horses for many kinds of service. It is likely, therefore, that soldiers on wheels will soon become a regular feature of the military establishment.

The New York Times gives the names of 430 employing concerns having not less than 25,000 workmen on their pay rolls, which have voluntarily raised wages during the last three months. This is a remarkable record of improved conditions.

Austria-Hungary has 174 paper factories, 210 pasteboard factories and 210 pulp factories. The yearly production is about 350,000,000 pounds of paper, 200,000,000 pounds of pasteboard and 150,000,000 pounds of pulp worth more than $200,000,000.

A company has been organized in France to build a ship railway from Bordeaux to Narbonne, a distance of about 200 miles. Engineers have reported that the cost will be less than that of a ship canal, and the transit time five times as rapid. The twentieth century promises to be the era of wonderful internal improvements.

Henri Rochefort is excited on the subject of Cuba, and says in his Paris paper: "America, to which the island belongs, will one day take Cuba from the Spaniards. We demand that this shall be done immediately." If Americans had any idea of seizing Cuba, the moral and vocal support of Rochefort would paralyze them.

Sir Charles Dilke demands several political reforms. Dilke's fall from grace a few years ago has destroyed much of his influence and has reduced him to the ranks. Intellectually he has been the strongest man in the Liberal Radical combination since Gladstone has retired, and but for his misapprehension he might be the leader of the party.

The empress of Germany delivered a long speech the other night at a golden anniversary of the regiment of Queen's Carabineers. The new woman in America is hardly advanced enough to be a colonel of a regiment, much less a Kentucky colonel, but then this country lacks several centuries of being as old as Germany.

A boy stole an orange from an Italian's push-cart in New York city and ran. He was pursued by a policeman, and his head was struck by the head of the cart, which was so heavy that it was not possible to stop it. The boy was killed.

The bodies of eight Chinamen were found in the San Joaquin river near the city of Sacramento, Cal. The bodies were found in a row, and it was supposed that they had been thrown in by a party of men who were engaged in a fight with the Chinese.

Mrs. Della Moore, the young wife of a railroad engineer at Lorain, Ohio, committed suicide by shooting herself.

"Back," English, the robber of the Callisto and Lakeport stage, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Mrs. Anderson, a bartender at Norwiche, N. Y., shot and mortally wounded his wife and then killed himself.

George Lawson, proprietor of the White Ribbon hotel at Springfield, Ill., fatally shot his wife and then himself.

Albert Guley, a telegraph operator, shot himself at Pontiac, Mich., after having been arrested for carrying a loaded revolver on his person.

That $120,000,000 of new debt which Spain has announced is all on account of the Cuban insurrection. Spain was already staggering under the debt burden which she carried, and the present addition of $120,000,000 is the last that she will have to make before the rebellion is put down. Wars, even of the sort under way in Cuba, are costly things in the modern age, but nations governed under sixteenth century ideas can not avoid them. As a question of mere dollars and cents it would pay Spain to give Cuba her liberty.

Poor old Spain, even with the help which the United States and England are giving her, is losing ground in her fight with the Cuban insurgents. Time was when an uprising of this sort would have been made short work of. The Spain of the present day, however, has dropped to the rank of Greece or Servia.

He was pursued by a policeman, who used his revolver with the usual inaccuracy and mortally wounded a policeman who cannot capture predatory small boys without shooting at them ought to be discharged. A force of that kind would be dangerous to any community.

A Providence, R. I., block maker has received a letter from England asking him if he would make a set of blocks for the cup-challenger Valje. The answer will undoubtedly be "Yes." American yachtsmen want, even a cup-challenger. By so doing many of the following notable resorts may be visited without additional expense. Chautauqua Lake, Niagara Falls, Thousand Islands, Rapids of the St. Lawrence, Saratoga, Palisades of the Hudson and the Hoosac Tunnel. Free Silver in Little Falls.
The free silver move in Little Falls is about as insignificant a political event as can be imagined, but its present proportions are probably due as much to the men who are at the head of it, as to any other cause. The men who are starting a silver club have for some time endorsed all the Populist vagaries, and their approval of free silver is natural and expected. H. S. Clyde, E. W. Collins, H. G. Van Bockirk, Wm. O'Shea and C. D. Bosker are not apt to revolutionize public sentiment on the financial question.—Transcript.

The admission will be 25 cents, and for children under fifteen years, 15 cents. Dr. Dawley is one of the lecturers at the Inter-State Assembly now in session at Detroit, and is a very able man, and it is because of a desire to furnish the people of Brainerd a rare, intellectual treat, that I have secured him. I hope that a large patronage will indicate the appreciation of the Brainerd people. Come and have a good laugh and an intellectual treat.

How is This, Charlie.
A resident of Brainerd claims to have had an encounter with a rattlesnake near that city recently. Well, these reptiles are rare in Northern Minnesota, and yet it is not strange that a Brainerd man—but, yes, perhaps it was the real goods—but they are rare, nevertheless.—Sank Center Herald.

Where is the Horse and Buggy?
On the floater found in Crow Wing river a week ago was discovered a receipt from Tomely's Bazaar, of this city. Mr. Tomely remembers the man well, and his description agrees with that given of the body. The man had a pony and buggy when he was here in May, and as these have disappeared, it is evident that there has been foul play. The man was here early in May and expressed the intention of soon going back to Alexandria.—Little Falls Transcript.

Minneapolis League Wants Page.
The Minneapolis Times says: "It is probable that Page, the crack short stop of the Brainerd aggregation who has been playing such phenomenal ball in two game played here this week, will be signed by the Minneapolis professional club to take Helen's place when the latter goes into the field. If Page does as good work in the league as he does in these amateur games, he will be a winner. He is a good batter and a clean and wide fielder."

Jeffersonians at Aitkin.
The Jefferson Club, of Brainerd, on last Saturday evening presented the comedy drama "Caprice" at an Aitkin audience, and the hall was well filled, notwithstanding other attractions. The leading parts were taken by Mrs. Hazen and Justin M. Smith, the simplicity of the country girl being depicted true to life by Mrs. Hazen, while Mr. Smith did what was expected with an ease quite natural to the "city chap" when captivated by the charms of innocence. E. O. Webb showed an improvement over his last visit here, and Raymond Seelye sustained his reputation as a clever delineator of the character of the down-east farmer. Joseph Lyndon and Charles Wilson were admirably adapted to their parts. Miss Lurline Cale, as the mother of Jack Henderson, possessed the quiet dignity becoming to her station, while Miss Robinson and Miss Burgoine added spice to the play by their coquetry. Altogether it was a first-class performance. Mrs. Atherton and Miss Robinson, between the acts, rendered some vocal selections, which received well-merited applause.—Aitkin Republican.

Stabbed Him Three Times.
On Sunday afternoon, a cutting at, fray occurred at White Sand lake, which, luckily, did not result in the taking of human life. On the day mentioned a party of prominent Scandinavians accompanied by their ladies were at O. P. Gustafson's farm by invitation of P. E. Anderson, who is the tenant on the place, and were enjoying a quiet afternoon, when they were joined by another party of four men under the influence of liquor who had not been invited. One of the first named party waited on them and asked them to either leave the farm or be quiet and orderly, as two of them had already been fighting. After some words one of the intruding party started for the milk house and entered it, when Mr. Gustafson, the owner of the place, put him out and ordered them to leave. This appeared to fire the anger of Charles Hill, one of the intruders, who jumped onto Oscar Anderson and cut him twice on the arm, and once on the breast. Immediately after the cutting Hill ran to the wood pile and picked up a double bitted axe which he carried around for awhile inviting some one to come out and fight him. Soon after he left the place and Anderson was brought into town to have his wounds dressed. Hill came to town, packed his clothes and started west with a team, but was caught at Motley by Deputy Sheriff Megquior and Chief Barron the following day. The prisoner came up for examination yesterday morning, but as his witnesses were not present the case was put over until Thursday morning next on request of Leon E. Lum who appeared for the county attorney.

Louise Hamilton
is the name of a sourette star new to the west. Nevertheless she is a bright one. She completely captured the Metropolitan cities of the east last season, and established her claim to the title of America's greatest comedienne. That she is clever and capable no one can doubt, when they read the press criticisms of her work. She will open a week's engagement in this city Monday, July 22nd, appearing in a round of comedy characters at 10, 20 and 30 cents. The plays will be changed nightly. On Monday ladies will be admitted free when accompanied by escort with paid 30 cent ticket. These tickets can be had free of charge up to 7 p. m. Monday by going to the McFadden Drug Store. The Ashland News, of July 16th, says: "This little Merrie Macer opened her week's engagement last night to an audience that packed the house to its utmost capacity—in fact Manager Miss informs us that there were more people inside the building last night than ever before in its history. The audience were all well pleased, as was evidenced by their long hearty applause. To-night Carrots will be the bill."

THE CURFEW ORDINANCE PASSED.

T. McMaster is Elected Vice President of the Council—Other Business.

The city council met in regular session on Monday evening with all members present. The minutes of the last regular meeting were approved and the report of the chief of police for June was accepted. The street commissioner reported a list of sidewalks needed to be rebuilt and the matter was laid over until the special meeting held last evening.

The following bills were audited and ordered paid:
G. H. Stratton, health officer. $30 00
Oliver Burnett, poundmaster. 9 75
D. Sherman, feeding cattle. 4 50
Julia A. Saborn, feeding prisoners. 16 28
Tribune, publishing. 16 38
Davis, Kellogg & Severance. 20 00
Jas R Smith, insurance. 18 00
Elec. Eng. Co. supplies. 44 54

Several bills of minor importance were also allowed.
Bill of Oliver Burnett for $31 for killing dogs, was referred to the chief of police, and on his approval the clerk was instructed to issue an order.

The bills of Hose Co. No. 1 and 2, expense of delegates to the state fire convention were ordered laid on the table, and the chief of the fire department instructed to send in a list of delegates of each company.

The city property committee reported that they had found the fire department room in the Fourth ward in bad shape, and the committee was instructed to make repairs.

The matter of attending to repairs on Mississippi river wagon bridge was left in the hands of the committee on sidewalks and bridges.

The special committee appointed to wait on Wm. M. Dressell, superintendent of electric lights, reported that he stated he had always devoted his whole time to the electric light plant and that he intended to do so as long as he was superintendent. The electric light committee was instructed to confer with Mr. Dressell in regard to the line men.

Ald. McMaster was elected vice president of the council by a unanimous vote.

Ordinance No. 125, relating to the use of the streets, alleys and public grounds by children, commonly known as the "Curfew" ordinance received its first and second reading and was placed upon its final passage and adopted.

Application and bond for liquor license was granted to Chas. J. Elliot.

Application of W. A. Fleming for a permit to put in a six foot brick sidewalk in front of his residence was granted provided it is put in at once.

J. Arnold was granted a permit to put in street scales in East Brainerd, but his application to be appointed weighmaster was refused.

Henry Behme, Joseph Rasch and Ed. Anderson were appointed fire police.

The matter of repairing street and sidewalk at the corner of ninth and Oak Street was referred to street committee.

Municipal Court Notes.
A. L. McDonald was up before the court on Tuesday for using indecent and abusive language to L. A. Lindsay, and pleaded guilty. The court imposed a fine of $15 or fifteen days in jail.

John Guitt was arrested on complaint of his wife Monday. The complaint stated that the prisoner had threatened to kill Mary Guitt, his wife, and that she was in fear of her life or that he would do her great bodily injury. The prisoner pleaded guilty to the offense with a very independent air, and the court imposed a jail sentence of six months or a bond of $150 to keep the peace.

A. P. Johnson was fined $10 in the municipal court Monday for using indecent language to Anton Johnson, the trouble arising over the parking of a watermelon.

Salvation Army People Arrested.
On Monday evening Police Officer Derocher arrested Capt. W. J. Carter, Lieut. R. James, Joseph Waldrop and F. B. Seacoy, the charge being obstructing the streets. On the evening in question the members of the Army were holding their open air meeting in front of the Arlington Hotel, and a great crowd collected in addition to the usual number of people who assemble on the depot platform when the Duluth train comes in, and it was impossible for people to pass up or down the walk. The police asked them to move on as they were obstructing the walk, and after some words on both sides Mr. Derocher told the Captain he would arrest him if he did not move, the latter replying that he would stand there until he was arrested. The four members of the Army remained in the lockup until midnight, when they were released by Officer Preston, and appeared in the municipal court on Tuesday morning and pleaded not guilty to the charge, the trial being set for Monday morning, July 23rd, bail being fixed at $50 in each case, which was readily furnished, H. C. Stivers and D. Holmes signing the bond for their appearance at that time.

Free Silver in Little Falls.
The free silver move in Little Falls is about as insignificant a political event as can be imagined, but its present proportions are probably due as much to the men who are at the head of it, as to any other cause. The men who are starting a silver club have for some time endorsed all the Populist vagaries, and their approval of free silver is natural and expected. H. S. Clyde, E. W. Collins, H. G. Van Buren, Wm. O'Shea and C. D. Boom are not apt to revolutionize public sentiment on the financial question. Transcript.

A Popular Lecturer.
One of the most popular lecturers of the day, entitled "Grumbling," will be delivered at the M. E. church on Monday evening, July 22nd, by Dr. W. W. Dawley, of Duluth. The admission will be 25 cents, and for children under fifteen years, 15 cents. Dr. Dawley is one of the lecturers at the Inter-State Assembly now in session at Detroit, and is a very able man, and it is because of a desire to furnish the people of Brainerd a rare, intellectual treat, that I have secured him. I hope that a large patronage will indicate the appreciation of the Brainerd people. Come and have a good laugh and an intellectual treat. R. C. Orr.

How is This, Charlie.
A resident of Brainerd claims to have had an encounter with a rattlesnake near that city recently. Well, these reptiles are rare in Northern Minnesota, and yet it is not strange that a Brainerd man—but, yes, perhaps it was the real goods—but they are rare, nevertheless.—Sank Center Herald.

Where is the Horse and Buggy?
On the float found in Crow Wing river a week ago was discovered a receipt from Tomely's Bazaar, of this city. Mr. Tomely remembers the man well, and his description agrees with that given of the body. The man had a pony and buggy when he was here in May, and as these have disappeared, it is evident that there has been foul play. The man was here early in May and expressed the intention of soon going back to Alexandria.—Little Falls Transcript.

Minneapolis League Wants Page.
The Minneapolis Times says: "It is probable that Page, the crack short stop of the Brainerd aggregation who has been playing such phenomenal ball in two game played here this week, will be signed by the Minneapolis professional club to take Helen's place when the latter goes into the field. If Page does as good work in the league as he does in these amateur games, he will be a winner. He is a good batter and a clean and wide fielder."

Jeffersonians at Aitkin.
The Jefferson Club, of Brainerd, on last Saturday evening presented the comedy drama "Caprice," at an Aitkin audience, and the hall was well filled, notwithstanding other attractions. The leading parts were taken by Mrs. Hazen and Justin M. Smith, the simplicity of the country girl being depicted true to life by Mrs. Hazen, while Mr. Smith did what was expected with an ease quite natural to the "city chap" when captivated by the charms of innocence. E. O. Webb showed an improvement over his last visit here, and Raymond Seelye sustained his reputation as a clever delineator of the character of the down-east farmer. Joseph Lyndon and Charles Wilson were admirably adapted to their parts. Miss Lurline Cole, as the mother of Jack Henderson, possessed the quiet dignity becoming to her station, while Miss Robinson and Miss Burgoyne added spice to the play by their comeliness. Altogether it was a first-class performance. Mrs. Atherton and Miss Robinson, between the acts, rendered some vocal selections, which received well-merited applause.—Aitkin Republican.

Stabbed Him Three Times.
On Sunday afternoon a cutting affair occurred at White Sand lake, which, luckily, did not result in the taking of human life. On the day mentioned a party of prominent Scandinavians accompanied by their ladies were at O. P. Gustafson's farm by invitation of E. E. Anderson, who is the tenant on the place, and were enjoying a quiet afternoon, when they were joined by another party of four men under the influence of liquor who had been invited. One of the first named party waited on them and asked them to either leave the farm or be quiet and orderly, as two of them had already been fighting. After some words one of the intruding party started for the milk house and entered it, when Mr. Gustafson, the owner of the place, put him out and ordered them to leave. This appeared to fire the anger of Charles Hill, one of the intruders, who jumped onto Oscar Anderson and cut him twice on the arm, and once on the breast. Immediately after the cutting Hill ran to the wood pile and picked up a double-bitted axe which he carried around for awhile inviting some one to come out and fight him. Soon after he left the place and Anderson was brought into town to have his wounds dressed. Hill came to town, packed his clothes and started west with a team, but was caught at Motley by Deputy Sheriff Mequay and Chief Barron the following day. The prisoner came up for examination yesterday morning, but as his witnesses were not present the case was put over until Thursday morning next on request of Leon E. Lum who appeared for the county attorney.

is the name of a soubrette star new to the west. Nevertheless she is a bright one. She completely captured the Metropolitan cities of the east last season, and established her claim to the title of America's greatest comedienne. That she is clever and capable no one can doubt, when they read the press criticisms of her work. She will open a week's engagement in this city Monday, July 22, appearing in a round of comedy characters at 10, 20 and 30 cents. The plays will be changed nightly. On Monday ladies will be admitted free when accompanied by escort with paid 30 cent ticket. These tickets can be had free of charge up to 7 p. m. Monday by going to the McFadden Drug Store. The Ash and News of July 16th, says: "This little Merrie Maker opened her week's engagement last night, presenting 'The Little Detective' to an audience that packed the house to its utmost capacity—in fact Manager Miss informs us that there were more people inside the building last night than ever before in its history. The audience were all well pleased, as was evidenced by their long hearty applause. Tonight Carrots will be the bill."

Several bills of minor importance were also allowed.
Bill of Oliver Burnett for $31 for killing dogs, was referred to the chief of police, and on his approval the clerk was instructed to issue an order.

The bills of Hose Co. No. 1 and 2, expense of delegates to the state fire convention were ordered laid on the table, and the chief of the fire department instructed to send in a list of delegates of each company.

The city property committee reported that they had found the fire department room in the Fourth ward in bad shape, and the committee was instructed to make repairs.

The matter of attending to repairs on Mississippi river wagon bridge was left in the hands of the committee on sidewalks and bridges.

The special committee appointed to wait on Wm. M. Dressell, superintendent of electric lights, reported that he stated he had always devoted his whole time to the electric light plant and that he intended to do so as long as he was superintendent. The electric light committee was instructed to confer with Mr. Dressell in regard to the line item.

Ald. McMaster was elected vice president of the council by a unanimous vote.

Ordinance No. 125, relating to the use of the streets, alleys and public grounds by children, commonly known as the "Curfew" ordinance received its first and second readings and was placed upon its final passage and adopted.

Application and bond for liquor license was granted to Chas. J. Elliot. Application of W. A. Fleming for a permit to put in a six foot brick sidewalk in front of his residence was granted provided it is put in at once. J. Arnold was granted a permit to put in street scales in East Brainerd, but his application to be appointed weighmaster was refused.

Henry Behme, Joseph Rasch and Ed. Anderson were appointed fire police.

The matter of repairing street and sidewalk at the corner of ninth and Oak Street was referred to street committee.

Municipal Court Notes.
A. L. McDonald was up before the court on Tuesday for using indecent and abusive language to L. A. Lindsay, and pleaded guilty. The court imposed a fine of $15 or fifteen days in jail.

John Guillet was arrested on complaint of his wife Monday. The complaint stated that the prisoner had threatened to kill Mary Guillet, his wife, and that she was in fear of her life or that he would do her great bodily injury. The prisoner pleaded guilty to the offense with a very independent air, and the court imposed a jail sentence of six months or a bond of $150 to keep the peace.

A. P. Johnson was fined $10 in the municipal court Monday for using indecent language to Anton Johnson, the trouble arising over the purchasing of a watermelon.

Salvation Army People Arrested.
On Monday evening Police Officer Derrocher arrested Capt. W. J. Carter, Lieut. R. James, Joseph Waldrop and F. B. Seacoy, the charge being obstructing the streets. On the evening in question the members of the Army were holding their open air meeting in front of the Arlington Hotel, and a great crowd collected in addition to the usual number of people who assemble on the depot platform when the Duluth train comes in, and it was impossible for people to pass up or down the walk. The police asked them to move on as they were obstructing the walk, and after some words on both sides Mr. Derrocher told the Captain he would arrest him if he did not move, the latter replying that he would sing there until he was arrested. The four members of the Army remained in the lockup until midnight, when they were released by Officer Preston, and appeared in the municipal court on Tuesday morning and plead not guilty to the charge, the trial being set for Monday morning, July 26th, bail being fixed at $50 in each case, which was readily furnished, H. C. Stevens and D. Holmes signing the bond for their appearance at that time.

Deserve An Ovation.

The Brainerd base ball team deserve much credit for their excellent work during the past week, having met and vanquished everything in sight so far in southern Minnesota, and when they get home nothing will be too good for them. Three games were played with "Our Minnie," at Minneapolis, the score in the several games standing 4 to 2, 17 to 5 and 10 to 8 respectively, always in favor of our team. At Shakopee two games were played the scores being 16 to 8 and 14 to 7. The two St. Peter games resulted in victories also for the Brainerds, the scores being 3 to 2 and 11 to 6. The last game of the series will be played at Mankato this afternoon, and after the Mankato scalp has been secured, the boys will return to this city, where they will meet the Duluth team at Athletic Park, Saturday afternoon and Sunday. The visiting team from Duluth is said to be a strong one, and the game will be very interesting, and undoubtedly be largely patronized. The people of this city feel proud of the reputation the boys have made, and well they should.

The Dead Man's Identity.
It is now supposed that the body found at the mouth of the Crow Wing river and buried by Deputy Coroner Looney, was that of Wm. Parsons, an Advent minister, whose home was at Annandale, Minn., and who did a small peddling business as he traveled through the country. Elder Sweeney, of Little Falls, looked the matter up and notified Mr. Whitelock, a son-in-law of the supposed dead man, and he came to Brainerd on Wednesday evening for information. He says the description is correct, except that Mr. Parsons had gray hair instead of sandy. He stated that just before his father-in-law left home he had his watch fixed and a new hand put on which did not match the other one, and as the watch in possession of the coroner tallies with the description, it is more than probable that his identity has been established, but to make certain Mr. Whitelock took the watch back with him to have the jeweler who fixed it identify the timepiece. He says that he does not think that Mr. Parsons was murdered, as his worldly possessions would not warrant such a crime, and he had no enemies that he knew of, but is inclined to think that in attempting to ford a stream with his horse he was upset and drowned. Mr. Whitelock left for Ft. Ripley yesterday morning, where the supposed dead man has relatives living and who may know something about his movements that will give a clue as to whether he has been in that vicinity lately.

The reports to the effect that the Cuban insurrection is collapsing continue to be contradicted by the frequent arrivals of re-enforcements from Spain.

Friction by rotary fans was the cause of a big fire in a building on North Market street, Chicago, that caused damage amounting to $11,500 before it could be extinguished.

The sum of $1,500,000, or thereabouts, some 2,000,000 kroner of which was spent by public subscription, has been spent on the fortification of Copenhagen since 1886.

In 1863 France had 287,294 marriages, divorces, 6,184; births, 5,744,722; deaths, 867,525. For the first time since 1880 the number of births registered exceeded the number of deaths.

The new woman is not yet so completely mistress of the field that the arrival of a third daughter in a boy's family is not regarded by the public as a matter for condolence rather than congratulation.

As bicycles multiply on the streets of cities, accidents to wheelmen become more numerous. The spurt in the wheel craze has put a large number of greenhorns on the roads, and these wobblers in emergencies are liable to become the victims of accidents.

The Kaiser's observation that the seas now connect, instead of divide, is not far from right when the rapid and luxurious transit on the ocean greysounds is considered. A railway journey of six days is not much faster and far less comfortable.

While the railway passengers carried in Great Britain in 1891 numbered 817,000,000, in Germany more than 315,000,000, in France about 208,000,000 and in Belgium about 57,000,000, the number conveyed in Russia was only 33,500,000.

A large number of bicycles are in use by the signal corps, and are preferred to horses for many kinds of service. It is likely, therefore, that soldiers on wheels will soon become a regular feature of the military establishment.

The New York Times gives the names of 430 employing concerns having not less than 315,000 workmen on their pay rolls, with the average salary paid wages during the last three months. This is a remarkable record of improved conditions.

Austria-Hungary has 174 paper factories, 210 pastebard factories and 34 pulp factories. The yearly production is about 350,000,000 pounds of paper, 200,000,000 pounds of pastebard and 150,000,000 pounds of pulp worth more than $200,000,000.

A company has been organized in France to build a ship railway from Bordeaux to Narbonne, a distance of about 300 miles. Engineers have reported that the cost will be less than that of a ship canal, and the transit five times as rapid. The twentieth century promises to be the era of wonderful industrial improvements.

Henri Rochefort is excited on the subject of Cuba, and says in his Paris paper, "America, to which the island belongs, will one day take Cuba from the Spaniards. We demand that this shall be done immediately." If Americans had any idea of seizing Cuba, the movement and the career of Rochefort would paralyze them.

Sir Charles Dilke demands several political reforms. Dilke's fall from grace a few years ago has destroyed most of his influence and has reduced him to the ranks. Intellectually he has been the strongest man in the Liberal Radical combination since Gladstone has retired, and but for his mislapse he might now be the leader of the party.

Poor old Spain, even with the help which the United States and England are giving her, is losing ground in her fight with the Cuban insurgents. Time was when an uprising of this sort would have been made short work of the Spain of the present day, however, has dropped to the rank of Greece or Servia.

The emissary of Germany delivered a long speech the other night at the 15th anniversary of the regiment of Queen's Cuirassiers. The new woman in America is hardly advanced enough to be a colonel of a regiment, much less a Kentucky colonel, but then this country lacks several centuries of being as old as Germany.

A boy stole an orange from an Italian's push-cart in New York city and ran. He was pursued by a policeman, who used his revolver with the usual inaccuracy and mortally wounded a woman. Policemen can't shoot without shooting at them ought to be discharged. A force of that kind would be dangerous to any community.

A Providence, R. I., block maker has received a letter from England asking him if he would make a set of blocks for the cup-challenger Vailre. The answer will undoubtedly be "Yes." American yachtsmen want, even a cup-challenger. There is no such narrow patriotism as that which prompts Lathorne, the leading English sailmaker, to refuse orders for sails for American yachts.

That $120,000,000 of new debt which Spain has contracted is all on account of the Cuban insurrection. Spain was already staggering under the debt burden which she carried, and the present addition to the load is hardly the last that she will have to make before the rebellion is put down. Wars, even of the sort under way in Cuba, are costly things in the modern age, but no nation governed under a sixteenth century leader could avoid them. As a question of mere dollars and cents it would pay Spain to give Cuba her liberty.

George Dow, who for a number of years was a passenger conductor on the N. P. between St. Paul and Fargo, and well known in Perham, resigned his position a couple of years ago to manage his farm near Ada. Becoming tired of farming, and anxious to again "get on the road," a short time ago he accepted a position as freight brakeman on the Fergus Falls branch. Last week Monday, while making a coupling at Wadena, he had the first two fingers of his right hand badly mangled.—Perham Bulletin.

The Knights Templar convocation will be held at Boston, Mass., during next August, and it will be of interest to Sir Knights and their friends to note that arrangements have already been successfully accomplished by the Nickel Plate road, providing for the sale of excursion tickets over direct lines going and returning or by circuitous routes, viz: going one line and returning another. By so doing many of the following notable resorts may be visited without additional expense. Chautauqua Lake, Niagara Falls, Thousand Islands, Rapids of the St. Lawrence, Strattona, Elmdale of the Hudson and the Hoosac Tunnel. The above arrangements will no doubt make the low rate excursion tickets offered to the Nickel Plate Road very popular. Call on or address J. Y. Calahan, Gen'l Agent, 111 Adams street, Chicago.

Free Silver in Little Falls.

The free silver move in Little Falls is about as insignificant a political event as can be imagined, but its present proportions are probably due as much to the men who are at the head of it, as to any other cause. The men who are starting a silver club have for some time endorsed all the Populist vagaries, and their approval of free silver is natural and expected. H. S. Clyde, E. W. Collins, H. G. Van Buskirk, Wm. O'Shea and C. D. Boom are not apt to revolutionize public sentiment on the financial question.—Transcript.

A Popular Lecturer.

One of the most popular lectures of the day, entitled "Grumbling," will be delivered at the M. E. church on Monday evening, July 22nd, by Dr. W. W. Dawley, of Duluth. The admission will be 25 cents, and for children under fifteen years, 15 cents. Dr. Dawley is one of the lecturers at the Inter-State Assembly now in session at Detroit, and is a very able man, and it is because of a desire to furnish the people of Brainerd a rare, intellectual treat, that I have secured him. I hope that a large patronage will indicate the appreciation of the Brainerd people. Come and have a good laugh and an intellectual treat.

on improved farm and city property.

How is this, Charlie.

A resident of Brainerd claims to have had an encounter with a rattlesnake near that city recently. Well, these reptiles are rare in Northern Minnesota, and yet it is not strange that a Brainerd man—but, yes, perhaps it is rare, nevertheless.—Sank Center Herald.

Where is the Horse and Buggy?

On the float found in Crow Wing river a week ago was discovered a receipt from Tomely's Bazaar, of this city. Mr. Tomely remembers the man well, and his description agrees with that given of the body. The man had a pony and buggy when he was here in May, and as these have disappeared, it is evident that there has been foul play. The man was here early in May and expressed the intention of soon going back to Alexandria.—Little Falls Transcript.

Minneapolis League Wants Page.

The Minneapolis Times says: "It is probable that Page, the crack short stop of the Brainerd aggregation who has been playing such phenomenal ball in two games played here this week, will be signed by the Minneapolis professional club to take Hulen's place when the latter goes into the field. If Page does as good work in the league as he does in these amateur games, he will be a winner. He is a good batter and a clean and wide fielder."

Jeffersonians at Aitkin.

The Jefferson Club, of Brainerd, on last Saturday evening presented the comedy drama "Caprice" at an Aitkin audience, and the hall was well filled, notwithstanding other attractions. The leading parts were taken by Mrs. Hazen and Justin M. Smith, the simplicity of the country girl being depicted true to life by Mrs. Hazen, while Mr. Smith did what was expected with an ease quite natural to the "city chap" when captivated by the charms of innocence. E. O. Webb showed an improvement over his last visit here, and Raymond Seelye sustained his reputation as a clever delineator of the character of the down-east farmer. Joseph Lyndon and Charles Wilson were admirably adapted to their parts. Miss Lurline Cale, as the mother of Jack Henderson, possessed the quiet dignity becoming to her station, while Miss Robinson and Miss Burgoyne added spice to the play by their coquetry. Altogether it was a first-class performance. Mrs. Atherton and Miss Robinson, between the acts, rendered some vocal selections, which received well-merited applause.—Aitkin Republican.

Stabbed Him Three Times.

On Sunday afternoon a cutting affray occurred at White Sand lake, which, luckily, did not result in the taking of human life. On the day mentioned a party of prominent Scandinavians accompanied by their ladies were at O. P. Gustafson's farm by invitation of P. E. Anderson, who is the tenant on the place, and were enjoying a quiet afternoon, when they were joined by another party of four men under the influence of liquor who had not been invited. One of the first named party waited on them and asked them to either leave the farm or be quiet and orderly, as two of them had already been fighting. After some words one of the intruding party started for the milk house and entered it, when Mr. Gustafson, the owner of the place, put him out and ordered them to leave. This appeared to fire the anger of Charles Hill, one of the intruders, who jumped onto Oscar Anderson and cut him twice on the arm, and once on the breast. Immediately after the cutting Hill ran to the wood pile and picked up a double bladed axe which he carried around for awhile inviting some one to come out and fight him. Soon after he left the place and Anderson was brought into town to have his wounds dressed. Hill came to town, packed his clothes and started west with a team, but was caught at Motley by Deputy Sheriff Megguier and Chief Barron the following day. The prisoner came up for examination yesterday morning, but as his witnesses were not present the case was put over until Thursday morning next on request of Leon E. Lum who appeared for the county attorney.

is the name of a soubrette star new to the west. Nevertheless she is a bright one. She completely captured the Metropolitan cities of the east last season, and established her claim to the title of America's greatest comedienne. That she is clever and capable no one can doubt, when they read the press criticisms of her work. She will open a week's engagement in this city Monday, July 22, appearing in a round of comedy characters at 10, 20 and 30 cents. The plays will be changed nightly. On Monday ladies will be admitted free when accompanied by escort with paid 30 cent ticket. These tickets can be had free of charge up to 7 p. m. Monday by going to the McFadden Drug Store. The Ashland news of July 16th, says:

This little Merrie Maker opened her week's engagement last night, presenting "The Little Detective" to an audience that packed the house to its utmost capacity—in fact Manager Mies informs us that there were more people inside the building last night than ever before in its history. The audience were all well pleased, as was evidenced by their long hearty applause. To-night Carrots will be the bill.

The police asked them to move on as they were obstructing the walk, and after some words on both sides Mr. Derocher told the Captain he would arrest him if he did not move, the latter replying that he would sing there until he was arrested. The four members of the Army remained in the lockup until midnight, when they were released by Officer Preston, and appeared in the municipal court on Tuesday morning and pleaded not guilty to the charge, the trial being set for Monday morning, July 29th, bail being fixed at $50 in each case, which was readily furnished, H. C. Stivers and D. Holmes signing the bond for their appearance at that time.
